

Contributor Covenant Code of Conduct

Our Pledge

We as members, contributors, and leaders pledge to make participation in our community a harassment-free experience for everyone, regardless of age, body size, visible or invisible disability, ethnicity, sex characteristics, gender identity and expression, level of experience, education, socio-economic status, nationality, personal appearance, race, caste, color, religion, or sexual identity and orientation.

We pledge to act and interact in ways that contribute to an open, welcoming, diverse, inclusive, and healthy community.

Our Standards

Examples of behavior that contributes to a positive environment for our community include:

- * Demonstrating empathy and kindness toward other people
- * Being respectful of differing opinions, viewpoints, and experiences
- * Giving and gracefully accepting constructive feedback
- * Accepting responsibility and apologizing to those affected by our mistakes, and learning from the experience
- * Focusing on what is best not just for us as individuals, but for the overall community

Examples of unacceptable behavior include:

- * The use of sexualized language or imagery, and sexual attention or advances of any kind

- * Trolling, insulting or derogatory comments, and personal or political attacks
- * Public or private harassment
- * Publishing others' private information, such as a physical or email address, without their explicit permission
- * Other conduct which could reasonably be considered inappropriate in a professional setting

Enforcement Responsibilities

Community leaders are responsible for clarifying and enforcing our standards of acceptable behavior and will take appropriate and fair corrective action in response to any behavior that they deem inappropriate, threatening, offensive, or harmful.

Community leaders have the right and responsibility to remove, edit, or reject comments, commits, code, wiki edits, issues, and other contributions that are not aligned to this Code of Conduct, and will communicate reasons for moderation decisions when appropriate.

Scope

This Code of Conduct applies within all community spaces, and also applies when an individual is officially representing the community in public spaces.

Examples of representing our community include using an official e-mail address, posting via an official social media account, or acting as an appointed representative at an online or offline event.

Enforcement

Instances of abusive, harassing, or otherwise unacceptable behavior may be reported to the community leaders responsible for enforcement at

[INSERT CONTACT METHOD]. vfaywolfe@uri.edu

All complaints will be reviewed and investigated promptly and fairly.

All community leaders are obligated to respect the privacy and security of the reporter of any incident.

Enforcement Guidelines

Community leaders will follow these Community Impact Guidelines in determining the consequences for any action they deem in violation of this Code of Conduct:

1. Correction

Community Impact: Use of inappropriate language or other behavior deemed unprofessional or unwelcome in the community.

Consequence: A private, written warning from community leaders, providing clarity around the nature of the violation and an explanation of why the behavior was inappropriate. A public apology may be requested.

2. Warning

Community Impact: A violation through a single incident or series of actions.

Consequence: A warning with consequences for continued behavior. No interaction with the people involved, including unsolicited interaction with those enforcing the Code of Conduct, for a specified period of time. This includes avoiding interactions in community spaces as well as external channels like social media. Violating these terms may lead to a temporary or permanent ban.

3. Temporary Ban

Community Impact: A serious violation of community standards, including sustained inappropriate behavior.

Consequence: A temporary ban from any sort of interaction or public communication with the community for a specified period of time. No public or private interaction with the people involved, including unsolicited interaction with those enforcing the Code of Conduct, is allowed during this period.

Violating these terms may lead to a permanent ban.

4. Permanent Ban

Community Impact: Demonstrating a pattern of violation of community standards, including sustained inappropriate behavior, harassment of an individual, or aggression toward or disparagement of classes of individuals.

Consequence: A permanent ban from any sort of public interaction within the community.

- Decisions (How will they be made? Majority, consensus, other?)
 - Talking to each other about and having a consensus over the decision
- Attendance (What are your expectations for the frequency and type of attendance?; What are legitimate reasons for missing? What do missing members have to do to make up for missed meetings)
 - To be in class every time
 - Legitimate reasons for missing are sickness, emergencies, or family problems
 - Missing member would have to contact their partner for what they can do to contribute
 - Missing members are responsible for the information they missed and should be on the same page as their partner
- Assignments (How will assignments be made? How will the group deal with members who do not complete (or poorly complete assignments?)
 - Members who do not complete or poorly complete their task should be given feedback to revise their work, otherwise their contribution lacks value and they should limit the responsibility they uphold
 - Assignments will be made by both partners brainstorming and agreeing on an idea. Members who don't complete or poorly complete assignments should receive constructive feedback/criticism and to encouraged him to do better
- Participation (How will you communicate and share information; How will you ensure full participation of everyone? How will you honor member strengths and interests)?
 - We'll communicate and share information via cell phone
 - Ensure full participation by working together and reminding each other of tasks to be completed
 - Honor member strengths and interests by respecting each other working pace and skills
- Meeting Times and Locations/Mediums (How will you decide on locations and times that suit all members)?
 - We'll decide on locations and times via cell phone messages
- Agenda and Minutes /Notes (Who will take them how will they be shared?)
 - Both partners can take notes and they can be shared through google docs
- Promptness (What do you expect and how will you handle lateness?)
 - To be at class on time and lateness should be discussed beforehand

- Lateness will be handled promptly, informing the other individual of what they missed
- Conversational Courtesies (How will the team encourage and reinforce active listening, sharing of the airtime, tangents, respectful dialogue, etc)
 - We'll encourage active listening by taking their word into consideration and not interrupting and ignoring their ideas
 - We will be respectful of our time schedules and personal work outside of class
- Enforcement/ Feedback (How will the team enforce its own rules? How do individuals prefer to give and receive feedback?)
 - Rules would be enforced to make sure that both partners agree
 - I prefer constructive feedback and I'll also give constructive feedback
